APPEAL - on Rained Repentance

Dear Brother,

I wish to appeal, not to say I was right, because I can see my thinking was all wrong. Being on my own the last few days has enabled me to put out my heart to Gholosh as he is for his money. I have brought reproach on his name & from the one taunting him. When I think I was getting involved with another woman's wife, I don't know how I could allow myself to get led along by my own heart to that situation.

I really feel shaken up by what I allowed to happen. I want Gholosh's blessing & spirit with me more important than that. That is why I am determined to follow through in this unwanted case.

I am thankful to Gholosh & your brothers for being enough to discipline me & bring me to realize the stupid thing I was doing & anytime I think of it, that come to my eyes & I find it difficult to work or eat. Thankfully at least I can sleep very well, sometimes 10-12 hours. The ground is hard though.

I am sorry for causing you all this trouble & for the reproach on Gholosh's name & the conspirators. I am determined to follow through in your counsel & pray that Gholosh & you will act mercifully through this situation. I would have followed through on your counsel more thoroughly earlier not given a cause for the father or outsiders to gossip. I am sorry.
